China Dog Update

We are now doing well with getting our wonderful China dogs over to us in the UK. We have plans for 6 each month to travel until they are all out of China. Sadly, some are now too old to travel, and a few have health concerns, which means that travel would be unsafe for them. These dogs will stay in the shelter cared for by our lovely Molly for the rest of their days. Here are the latest 3 dogs travelling to us, all very sweet natured happy dogs looking for their forever families.

If you could offer another dog a home, do get in touch and please spread the news of these beautiful dogs with your friends and family. They truly are so deserving and will be the perfect addition to the family. If you'd like to donate to us to help cover their travel costs to their new lives, please Click here for PayPal or here for JustGiving

Please tick for gift aid if you are a UK taxpayer, as we get 25% on top of your donation.

Fostering a dog isn't a lifetime commitment.

It's a commitment to saving a LIFE.

We urgently need people that could join our small team of fosterers.

REMY

Hi Louise,

just to let you know things are going really well with Remy. He was great in the night, likes the crate under the stairs and stayed quiet until the morning.

Today he has calmed down more and started to lie down more rather than constantly moving about.

He has been for a walk today and was good on the lead but extremely interested in sheep, we'll have to work on that. Good house training, just one wee accident, and he is learning very quickly to respond to sit, lie down, come.

Yesterday we had some issues with him constantly pestering our dog Oscar to play for hours until there was a lot of growling and bared teeth. But we mostly let them get on with it and that is calming down today.

Also, he eats super-fast and then eats the rest of Oscar's food - we are wondering about separating them to eat? If you have any advice on that we'd be grateful.

Anyway, all well here. Thanks so much for giving us the opportunity.

With best wishes,

Kate, Henry, Ali, Oscar & Remy.

COCO

Hi Sue,

It was Coco's birthday on the 11th Feb, and he was 2.

The last 15 and a bit months have been trying at times, but he is now really settling down, and it really feels that he has made his forever home with us. He can still be a little minx at times, but we are getting there. His recall is getting better but if he sees another Labrador, he is off for a play. We are careful when letting him off the lead because his size and speed tends to worry some people. He can tend to meet them at a flat-out gallop!

We have always said that he needs a job, and every Friday morning at the end of his walk we pass Waitrose - he now expects to carry their free Weekend newspaper home. It makes other people laugh and makes him feel important. The paper is still dry when we get home but then he destroys it!

He loves everybody and all other dogs, but labradors take preference. When we stop and talk to people he has learnt to sit and wait; instead of greeting them with paws at shoulder height and trying to give them a kiss!

Keep up the good work.

Kind regards,
John, Hazel and Coco.

BUSTER

Hi Louise,

Hope all is well with you and the crew at LRRSE.

Thought I would update you with the latest from Buster.

He is still the cuddly dog he has always been but has slowed down a lot.

We took him to the vets before Christmas to check out his right rear leg, as it was much thinner than his left. After X-rays and an orthopaedic specialist consultation, he has been diagnosed with hip dysplasia. We start hydrotherapy on Tuesday. The plan is to build up the muscle as much as we can, to see if that, and Metacam, will improve his hip. He is on a metabolic and mobility diet, and we are limiting walks to 15mins at present, to allow him to get out and about to sniff and wee etc. If that does not work, the consultant says he needs a new hip.

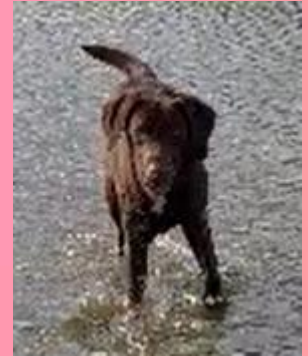

He is still his same old self, a delight around people but still a bit unpredictable around some other dogs.

Will let you know how we get on with the hydrotherapy. It could be a challenge as he is not keen on going into water above his tummy!!

DIXIE

Hi Sue,
Dixie has just been the best ever. She is just so sweet and hasn't put a foot wrong at all. We took her in the fields at the weekend where there was lots of water and she loved it. She has made friends with my Dad's dogs and has really settled in brilliantly. Please let her previous owners that she is being so well loved and she's very happy. Thank you for all you do.

When people say,
I couldn't foster because it would be too hard to give a dog up.'

We say,
'How can it be harder
than knowing a dog died
because no foster stepped up?
and that's why we do it
time and time again.

ATTENTION!

We want everyone to

It is VERY toxic to dogs.

[ˈlæbrədɔː] noun

those "puppy eyes" until you cave and share your biscuits.

RIVER

Morning Louise and Sue,

It's been nearly 9 months now since we adopted River when he was 9 weeks old. We have taken River to puppy classes, and he loved them. Unfortunately, not all the puppies loved him as much, due to his size and his enthusiasm to jump and run at and knock the other pups over! He has brought so much energy into our house, which had become very calm and quiet.

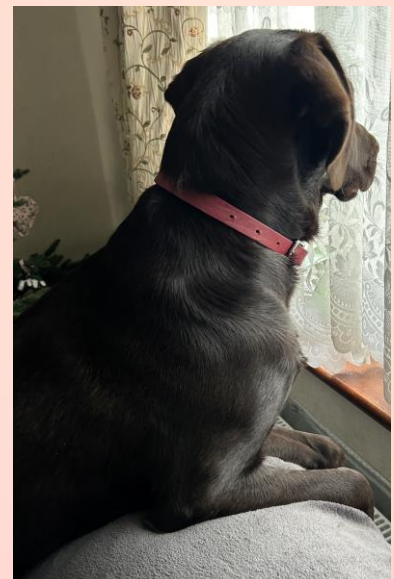

Unfortunately, on Christmas Day my mum passed away and poor River was thrown into a situation he had not experienced before. We along with the rest of the family all went to my sister's. There were about 10 of us, ranging from 3 yrs old to 70+, with 3 other dogs he hadn't met and a cat. We all stayed there for a few days. Whilst his senses were, at times, overwhelmed, he just took it all in his stride – playing, going for long walks in the countryside with his new doggie friends and trying to eat his new friends' food and toys.

I did struggle, I can't lie. I did think to myself, "Why had I chosen to get a puppy?" The timing couldn't have been worse. My grief was all consuming. BUT when I looked at his face and felt his love, and when he gave me such beautiful cuddles, I knew that the timing had actually been perfect. He helped me to start healing. My mum loved him, and I will always hold on to the memory of how her face lit up when she would see him.

He is now 27 kilos and very tall. Sleeps on our bed. At times my husband or myself have found ourselves sleeping in the spare room because River has taken over our bed. And when he is asleep, he won't be moved! We really need to work on this – lol.

A very big thankyou to you and Sue for letting us have River.
